

1 GRIS LIGHTNING

You heard it here first: Romo has just debuted its first-ever rug collection. Murano, a cotton chenille flat weave (shown: Gris; also comes in Sunflower), is like art for the floor. Available to the trade in standard and custom sizes, D&D Building, 979 Third Ave, Ste. 1703, NYC, 212-319-7666, romo.com.

2 GRAPHIC REFRESH

Manhattan-based decorator Sasha Bikoff gives circa-1960 Maison Jansen balloon chairs new life with Pierre Frey's Arty fabric. $3,650 for a pair, sashabikoff.com.

3 AT YOUR SERVICE

There's nothing cheesy about this cheery palette-like serving tray from Fishs Eddy. $33, at West Elm, 112 W. 18th St, NYC, 212-929-4464, westelm.com.

5 ENDLESS LOVE

Donghia's sturdy polyester print Infinity mimics batik and feels like a linen silk. Available to the trade in six colors (shown: Blush), D&D Building, 979 Third Ave, Ste. 700, NYC, 212-935-3713, donghia.com.

4 VIVID VESSEL

Showcase fresh spring blooms in a stoneware vase from Lenox's Indigo Stripe collection. $50, at Macy's, 151 W. 34th St, NYC, 212-695-4400, macys.com.

6 CALLIGRAPHIC CABINET

Andrew Martin's burnt-wood Marcel sideboard for Sonder Living is punctuated by glass cabinet doors emblazoned with inky brushstrokes. $4,407, at ABC Carpet & Home, 888 Bway, NYC, 212-473-3000, abchome.com.

PRODUCED BY CATILIN ST JOHN