Occupation: Interior designer and antiques dealer at 1stDibs. History: I bought this house because I grew up in the fancy part of town, south of the highway in Bridgehampton and Sagaponack. I fell in love with Springs because I felt like it was untouched, cooler and more artistic. Routine: Every morning my family meets at our surf shack in Montauk at the trailer park. We have a fishing boat docked nearby that was my grandfather's, and we'll take the boat to surf off of Gardiner's Island. Ride: My grandparents used to drive a Mercedes convertible in the '80s called the Red Devil. I cruise around Springs in a bright yellow version I found at the Pebble Beach auction. @sashabikoff
